ORDER ON APPEAL

On January 5, 1990, the Honorable John S. Dalis, United States Bankruptcy Judge, entered an order disallowing the claim of First State Bank of Wrens in this Chapter 13 case. Appellant First State Bank of Wrens filed its notice of appeal, and the case is before this Court for review. This United States District Court has jurisdiction over this bankruptcy appeal.

The time for filing a proof of claim in a bankruptcy case is indeed a bar date. The bankruptcy judge has found the facts which are not clearly erroneous and has correctly applied the law.

Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c) has the force of law, and the exception which appellant claims is not enumerated in the rule. The rule means just what it says.

The decision of the bankruptcy judge is AFFIRMED.

ORDER ENTERED at Augusta, Georgia, this 5th day of March, 1990.

DUDLEY H. BOWEN, JR.
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
